A brilliant lawyer, hard working and approachable, and a wonderful team member.

- Chambers & Partners

Amanda Savage QC practises across the range of chambers' work, with a primary focus on professional liability claims, insurance and general commercial litigation.

She was shortlisted for the 'Professional Negligence Junior of the Year' (2019) award by Chambers & Partners UK.

Amanda prides herself on providing an excellent level of service to her clients and those that instruct her and her attention to detail, together with a "no nonsense" approach to litigation.

Amanda has particular experience of claims against lawyers (including applications for wasted costs), being regularly instructed by leading solicitors' insurers and BMIF. Amanda has been involved in several high profile lawyers' claims, including the 'Right to Buy' litigation, GWM v Templeton, Williams v Thompson Leatherdale, Daniels v Thompson and Brown v Bennett and was junior counsel in the longest ever hearing before the Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal (SRA v Dennison and others).

Winner of the prestigious Chambers & Partners Professional Negligence Junior of the Year award in 2014, Amanda is rated in Chambers & Partners and Legal 500 as a leading junior in the field of professional negligence and has been described as "brilliant to deal with - exceptionally bright, very commercial and will speak to clients on their level", "her attention to detail is second to none and she has a no-nonsense attitude.", "she's not afraid to really test her clients and provides sensible, reasoned and practical advice", "very good on detail and a fearless advocate on her feet", "fantastic on paper and strong in mediation", "proof that the stream of talent [at 4 New Square] never stops flowing...", "an extremely thorough junior who presents her work in apple pie order", "smart and reliable", "extremely popular and deservedly so" and someone who "doesn't sit on the fence and is hard-hitting and practical".

"Very good legal brain, an eye for detail and is easy to work with" - Amanda is also ranked as a leading junior in the Legal 500, 2015 for her Insurance and Reinsurance practice. She was junior Counsel in Milton Insurance Ltd v Brit Insurance Ltd in the Court of Appeal and at first instance.

Amanda is an assistant editor of Jackson and Powell on Professional Liability (Sweet and Maxwell, 7th edition, 2012) and a member of the Professional Negligence Bar Association, the London Common Law & Commercial Bar Association, The British Insurance Law Association and the Chancery Bar Association.

Areas of Expertise

Commercial Dispute Resolution

Amanda undertakes a broad range of general commercial litigation, including disputes regarding the supply and sale of goods, partnership disputes, and a variety of commercial contractual disputes, including in the insurance field. She has a particular interest in disputes concerning the construction of contracts and in case concerning the conflict of laws. Amanda also acts in agency disputes and in this regard advised and acted for a large supplier of pipes and valves to contractors operating in the oil and gas, power and process industries in litigation involving the construction of contracts and the Commercial Agents (Council Directive) Regulations 1993.

Amanda has experience of commercial fraud cases and acted as junior counsel (led by John Powell QC) for a company in administrative receivership in a multi million pound commercial fraud case brought against a former major supplier and its directors. She was recently instructed on behalf of a firm of solicitors in complex litigation arising out of mortgage fraud, dealing with questions of (amongst other things) the application and interpretation of the Insolvent Partnerships Order 1994.

Vicarious Liability: whose liability is it anyway?

20 April 2020

Vicarious liability is "on the move", but how far has it gone? Amanda Savage QC and Nick Broomfield explore the development of the doctrine of vicarious liability in light of the recent decisions of Barclays Bank plc v Various Claimants [2020] UKSC 13 and MW Morrison Supermarkets plc v Various Claimants [2020] UKSC 12.
