Clever, calm and confident. He's notable for his incredible memory for detail.

- Chambers & Partners

Ben Hubble QC is a specialist in professional liability, disciplinary, regulatory and commercial work.

Much of Ben's work involves claims against accountants, actuaries, auditors, directors, financial advisers, financial institutions, insurance brokers, lawyers, pension consultants and tax advisers often following on from corporate collapse, lender losses, increased pension scheme liabilities or failed tax and investment schemes. Multi-party and group litigation is a particular expertise. In addition, Ben concentrates on: commercial arbitrations and litigation both on and offshore; banking; insurance (particularly coverage and indemnity disputes) and claims arising from the financial services sector. Ben is a Senior Decision Maker for the Guernsey Financial Services Commission.

In April 2020, Ben was featured as both 'Lawyer of the Week' in The Times and as the first 'Barrister of the Week' in The Lawyer. Ben's recommendations in the Directories extend to Professional Negligence, Professional Discipline & Regulatory, Pensions, Offshore and Insurance. He is variously described as "superb on every level: rolls up his sleeves and solves issues; adds huge value to anything he touches", "absolutely at the top of his game and excellent to work with", "his advocacy is fantastic. He really makes it all very simple and based in common sense", "analytical, innovative and easy to approach", "highly rated for his advocacy, focused advice and prompt response", "[a QC who] immediately earns clients' confidence due to his understanding and his forensic approach", "as conscientious and thorough as can be", "hardworking, bright and responsive", "the first name I think of for professional discipline accountancy cases", "one of the 'big beasts' of the Professional Negligence Bar and our first choice for big-ticket claims in that arena. He is very knowledgeable and articulate and he is an excellent advocate" and "very experienced and [able to] adapt his advocacy style to the particular tribunal he is addressing."

Ben regularly acts on the high value claims in the professional liability arena, particularly those where the dispute is of a commercial or international nature. In relation to lawyers' liability, Ben is frequently involved in claims with a multi-party element, such as the Right to Buy Litigation and various claims arising from failed property investment schemes.

Ben is particularly experienced in regulatory and professional disciplinary issues in the legal and financial sectors. Ben advises a number of city law firms on regulatory and compliance issues, as well as acting on disciplinary claims before the SDT. On the financial disciplinary side, Ben has longstanding expertise having acted in many of the large accountancy disciplinary proceedings of this decade. Ben is particularly adept at providing strategies to address the various regulatory and compensatory risks that arise from a breakdown in compliance or corporate governance.

Ben is a highly experienced trial lawyer and relishes his role as an advocate. Alongside that, Ben places particular emphasis on detailed preparation, teamwork and being as approachable and flexible as possible.

Areas of Expertise

Insurance & Reinsurance

“A go-to QC for coverage claims, he is calm, detailed and decisive, as well as a first-rate analyst. He also has an excellent manner in dealing with clients facing serious claims, which reassures them that their claims will be tenaciously defended.” – Legal 500, 2021

“He is able to get to the heart of the issues quickly; his advice is measured, practical and commercial.” – Legal 500, 2020

“Technically very strong and rolls up his sleeves and gets into the detail.” “Very authoritative.” – Chambers & Partners, 2020

“Very accessible and easy to work with. He provides very pragmatic advice and is excellent on his feet.” “Very knowledgeable, commercial and approachable.” – Chambers & Partners, 2019

In relation to insurance, Ben concentrates on both general commercial insurance and professional indemnity insurance related issues. In relation to general commercial insurance, Ben is particularly experienced in fire and business interruption claims. Ben has been appointed to advise a number of different insurance brokers, and/or their clients, in relation to potential Covid-19 claims.

In relation to professional indemnity related insurance claims, the nature of Ben’s practice is such that his expertise inevitably extends to all the insurance related issues arising from professional liability and misconduct claims. Ben is accordingly an expert in the issues arising from both professional indemnity insurance and D&O policies. Ben regularly advises on indemnity and coverage issues. Ben acts as an arbitrator on professional indemnity coverage disputes.

Ben has particular expertise of:

- Fire claims
- Business interruption claims including advising national insurance brokers on different Covid-19 related scenarios by reference to standard policy wordings
- The Solicitors Minimum Terms and Condition, including successor practice issues
- Dishonesty conferences against the backdrop of mortgage fraud and generally
- Professional indemnity policies for other professionals
- Meaning of claim and circumstance
- Notification issues, particularly in relation to multiple conveyancing transactions
- Aggregation, particularly in relation to multiple conveyancing transactions and ATE schemes (having acted for AIG at first instance in the leading case in the area)
- Advising on whether claims arising from Private Legal Practice
- Advising insurers on whether claims against financial advisers for non FSA regulated activities fell within policy terms
- Advising insurers on whether claims against financial advisers for SCARP products within fell policy terms
- Acting on LCIA arbitrations often with a US element
- Acting on claims by regulated entities against insurers for costs of mitigation and remediation exercises

Ben regularly advises on the above issues, acts as a paper arbitrator and appears at arbitrations between insurer and insureds.

Qualifications & Memberships

Ben is a former Chairman of the Professional Negligence Bar Association. He has sat on the Committees advising on the terms of the Professional Negligence Pre-Action Protocol and the Adjudication Scheme for Solicitors Negligence claims. He is also a member of the Chancery Bar Association and the Common Law & Commercial Bar Association.

The new Accounts Rules – what can you do?

28 October 2019

On 25 November 2019 the SRA Accounts Rules 2011 will cease to have effect, and will be replaced by new accounts rules. In one quarter-stroke of the draftsman's pen, 52 rules covering 50 pages of single-spaced typescript on pages of A4 will be replaced by 13 rules on 10 pages. The SRA has trumpeted loudly that the rules have been simplified and that they provide greater flexibility. Have they? Do they?
