His ability to absorb vast amounts of information and recall it is legendary.

- Legal 500

Graeme McPherson QC's practice is split primarily between domestic and international commercial litigation and arbitration, insurance litigation and arbitration, professional liability claims, and sports work.

Outside of the United Kingdom, Graeme works in the Channel Islands, the Caribbean and Gibraltar.

He is regularly appointed as an Arbitrator, including as a Rule K Arbitrator in football disputes. In April 2020 Graeme was appointed to the Premier League's new Judicial Panel, one of 4 silks so appointed. He is also frequently appointed to chair disciplinary and appellate committees of various sporting regulators. In 2012 Graeme was appointed as one of the specialist Advocates selected to argue cases before the ad hoc Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) during the London Olympic Games. In 2014 he performed the same role at the Glasgow Commonwealth Games.

Prior to taking Silk in 2008 Graeme appeared for a number of years in the top tiers of leading juniors in the Chambers and Partners Guide to the Legal Profession and Legal 500 in a number of different fields. In 2005 he was short-listed for Junior of the Year at the Chambers and Partners awards.

In 2008 Graeme became the youngest member of the Bar that year to be appointed to Silk. He is now ranked in the directories as a leading silk in a wide variety of different fields across the range of his practice. In 2015 Graeme was awarded Professional Negligence Silk of the Year by Chambers and Partners. He is particularly recognized for the quality and effectiveness of his advocacy.

Quotes from the Directories include:

*'The best thing since sliced bread'; 'A highly effective advocate'; 'Exceptionally talented'; 'A real star ... he is just fantastic and can turn his mind to anything'; 'His judgment is first-rate and he works like a Trojan'; 'A fantastic courtroom presence ...'; 'An intelligent advocate and a formidable opponent ... top drawer ... solid, reliable and likeable ...'; 'A fearless advocate with a real instinct for running cases'; '...
