A highly intelligent lawyer

- Chambers & Partners

Kendrah Potts has a broad practice that covers commercial litigation, international arbitration and sports law. She is described in the directories as a “highly intelligent lawyer”, “sensational” and a “brilliant advocate, who is able to drill into the key points with ease”.

Kendrah was called to the Bar after working as a solicitor for eleven years. She spent eight years at Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer, where she gained broad experience of High Court litigation, international arbitration and multi-jurisdictional disputes. She was a Partner and Head of Litigation at Onside Law before joining Mishcon de Reya as a Legal Director.

Kendrah has worked on a wide range of commercial disputes across different industries, including energy, pharmaceuticals and financial services. She often works on cases involving allegations of corruption or fraudulent conduct, and that have an international aspect. She is recognised as a leading junior for Commercial Litigation in Legal 500 2021.

Kendrah is ranked in the top tier of leading juniors in both Chambers & Partners and Legal 500 for Sports Law. She has extensive experience of commercial disputes and disciplinary matters in the sports sector, particularly in the fields of corruption, anti-doping and match-fixing. She is regularly instructed in high profile cases as sole advocate.

After many years as a solicitor and spending time in-house on secondment, Kendrah has an excellent understanding of the demands on clients and takes a commercial and client-friendly approach to litigation.

Kendrah is an accredited mediator and also sits as an arbitrator.

Costs

Kendrah has more than ten years' experience of costs matters. As a former solicitor she has extensive experience of issues relating to CFAs, billing and costs budgets. Kendrah's experience of preparing costs budgets and managing cases as a solicitor makes her particularly well qualified to defend costs budgets and fees at CCMCs and on detailed assessment.

Recent cases include:

- Acting for a law firm in respect of claims relating to CFAs and ATE insurance (led by Nicholas Bacon QC).
- Acting for a law firm in its defence of an application under the Solicitors Act 1974 (led by Daniel Saoul).
- Representing a law firm in relation to a wasted costs application.

GDPR and Sport: make sure that you're on the ball!

11 May 2018

Richard Liddell, Kendrah Potts and William Harman look at some of the principal enforcement risks facing sporting bodies under the new regime described by the ICO as a "game-changer" and consider how the GDPR might feed into existing facets of sports dispute resolution.
