He's a great leader on complex cases who is always calm and measured.

- Chambers & Partners

Nicholas Davidson QC is a commercial litigator, mediator and arbitrator who has been described in the Legal 500 as being "an exceptional silk" (2019) with "a charming manner, which puts clients at ease" (2016) and by Chambers & Partners (2019) as someone who "produces masterpieces. The work, the detail, the focus that goes into it - it is outstanding; it blows me away." "You want him on your side and not on the other side."

Also as "one of the leading trial lawyers of his generation with excellent client skills" (2015), displaying "mastery of the law and practice of insurance" (2011); and in Chambers and Partners as "a great leader" (2017) "extremely competent, user-friendly and authoritative" (2016) and "a must-have barrister who is mustard when it comes to identifying the salient points" (2010) and a "master cross-examiner" (2011) and "a sensational cross-examiner and advocate" (2013). He is equally at home in trial work and in appellate work at all levels ("listened to" was another).

Always aiming to maintain a wide breadth of knowledge of the law and commercial awareness, he is committed both to understanding his clients' angles on their cases and to readiness to search for new angles. Despite having conducted many large cases for the defence, he does much claimant work. He is particularly interested in claims about investment advice and management.

Other directory (and in one case The Lawyer) comments in his time in Silk have been:

"A "fantastic" litigator and arbitrator, particularly noted for his skills in cross-examination and advocacy."

"Nicholas Davidson QC is "clearly one of the top guys at the Bar" and is held in the highest regard. Junior lawyers often turn to him for advice and he "rather generously and happily imparts his knowledge to them."

Areas of Expertise

Professional Liability

Nicholas Davidson QC is a commercial litigator and arbitrator who has been described in the Legal 500 as being "a master of brevity, who sees the whole picture but doesn't miss the detail. The very definition of a legal eagle." (2022) "A class act with tremendous presence and gravitas in court" (2020) and "an exceptional silk" (2019) with "a charming manner, which puts clients at ease" (2016) and by Chambers & Partners (2019) as someone who "produces masterpieces. The work, the detail, the focus that goes into it – it is outstanding; it blows me away." "You want him on your side and not on the other side." "His technical knowledge is first rate. He gets right into it himself, so he's a great leader to work with, and brings tremendous enthusiasm." "He is very effective and has a sensible, smooth approach. He has gravitas and is able to lead in a way that lets some of the heat out of the situation." (2020)

Also as "one of the leading trial lawyers of his generation with excellent client skills" (2015), displaying "mastery of the law and practice of insurance" (2011); and in Chambers and Partners as "a great leader" (2017) "extremely competent, user-friendly and authoritative" (2016) and "a must-have barrister who is mustard when it comes to identifying the salient points" (2010) and a "master cross-examiner" (2011) and "a sensational cross-examiner and advocate" (2013). He is equally at home in trial work and in appellate work at all levels ("listened to" was another).

Accountants, Auditors & Actuaries

Nicholas has frequently worked with accountants on numerous aspects of litigation, often to do with company valuation issues (a notable early case was involved successful defence of a share valuation claim where the claimant's expert was perhaps the then doyen of share valuation, Bruce Sutherland: Whiteoak v. Walker (1983) showed that if a company's articles required a valuation to be carried out by a generalist accountant he was not to be judged as if he had held himself out as a share valuation specialist).

In 2016 he led for the claimants in one of The Lawyer's "leading cases of the year", Harlequin Property (SVG) Ltd v Wilkins Kennedy, in which Harlequin recovered more than £9 million in a case which the Judge described as having been defended "stubbornly" [2016] EWHC 3188(TCC) [2017] 4 WLR 30.

Insurance Brokers & Agents

Nicholas' most recent case in this field involved an 8-figure claim for a broker's client whose insurers were admittedly entitled to avoid for non-disclosure, the issue being how the non-disclosure had come about.

Financial Services Professionals

Nicholas' considerable experience of, and great interest in, financial services claims has perhaps had an emphasis on investment management or advice, where he has acted for both claimants and defendants (usually in arbitrations). Being himself a trustee of a defined benefit pension scheme, he has to be able to understand the investment challenges for trustees and managers, and to be aware of legislative and administrative background. He has acted for a major financial adviser in defence of a split caps claim, and for various individuals who, having sold successful businesses, made or are making claims against leading investment houses when their investments disappointed by 7-figure sums, and for other individuals whose investments are said not to have been tailored suitably; certain pension issues following the demise of a business, and issues relating to offshore investment funds, have been referred to him.

Lawyers

Nicholas has deep experience of both claimant and defendant work in lawyers' liability cases, across the range of common law and equitable remedies. He led the defence teams in both the Bristol and West and Nationwide cases, and the technically vital cases in the House of Lords Cave v Robinson, Jarvis and Rolf (limitation) and Medcalf v Mardell (wasted costs). More recent defence and recovery work has included pursuit for a major national solicitors firm of recovery proceedings against one of the practices in the middle of the huge commercial mortgage fraud involving Dunlop Haywards, defence and third party recovery work for solicitors who had acted for banks on a syndicated loan for a fraudulent project, and defence of a claim where a solicitor was alleged to have induced the client to make the commercial decision to make a large and risky loan; and work in cases of internal problems in a practice. For claimants he was brought in to a leading role in the Supreme Court in AIB v Mark Redler, and notably has led in claims involving the specialist employment work of major law practices, successively in Newcastle International Airport v Eversheds, Wright v Lewis Silkin and Commodities Research Unit International Ltd v King Wood Mallesons. The Wright case featured the problems of cross-border work, as did Bancroft v Weil Gotshal, where Nicholas acted for an international investment fund in a claim related to the handling of a central European business acquisition.

He has been / is involved in some extremely high value claims in overseas matters. His wide experience across all Divisions of the High Court includes financial matters post-divorce, a field in which he practised while a junior and in relation to which he has experience in Silk, and to which he brings his interest in investment and pension matters (he is a Trustee of a Defined Benefit Pension Scheme).

Surveyors & Valuers

Nicholas has appeared in various surveying and valuation cases, and finds valuation cases particularly intriguing. He particularly relished the valuation challenge in Hartle v Lacey's [1999] Lloyd's Rep. P.N. 315, in which he effectively had to argue both sides' cases in the Court of Appeal as the appellant was unrepresented, in which the evidence was that for a significant period following a residential development market collapse there was no active market. Valuation problems were a frequent factor in the litigation in which we was engaged throughout the 1990s.
