Has long been considered the best junior in the costs field and now may equally lay claim to the title as QC.

- Legal 500

Roger Mallalieu QC joined 4 New Square in 2008 after 10 years practice at 6 Pump Court and then Hailsham Chambers. He is ranked as a leading practitioner in the field of costs law and has been involved in many of the leading cases in the area.

Recognised by the directories as a "guru on costs" with a "formidable reputation", he has been described in the directories as "absolutely smashing" and "simply the best when it comes to costs law." "He really is something else. He knows the area so incredibly well but he's never overbearing with that knowledge. His approach is really helpful and his strength is when he's on his feet: he's a fantastic advocate." He "wins considerable market acclaim due to his broad knowledge base and restrained yet steely manner" with particular comment made of his ability to "bringing clarity and depth to the case" and his ability then to "integrate that into a team approach to get the best result". He regularly appears in the Court of Appeal on important costs cases and has been instructed in some of the few costs cases to have been heard in the Supreme Court.

In addition, Roger also has a well-established practice in the fields of professional negligence (in particular clinical negligence), with a particular specialism in high value spinal injury cases. His particular skills and expertise also blend very well with his professional disciplinary work, particularly relating to solicitors. Roger also undertakes some general commercial contract law work.

Roger is particularly attracted to complex technical issues and prides himself on his ability to work with his professional and lay clients to develop and then pursue a comprehensive strategy to deploy or respond to such issues at all levels.
