Areas of Expertise

Offshore

Will spent three months on secondment with Ogier in Jersey during which he experienced a range of complex offshore litigation. Much of Will's work centred on proceedings in the Royal Court relating to the distribution of a trust settled by the former National Bank of Yugoslavia between the existing successor states. He also assisted with a variety of non-trust matters encompassing construction, share purchase and company disputes.

Will's offshore experience also includes:

- Acting as part of a large counsel team in a high-value claim against accountant auditors following the administration of a

Guernsey investment fund.

- Defending an Isle of Man trust in a multi-jurisdictional dispute involving allegations of fraud by creditors to a personal guaranty.
- Sole English counsel in a substantial payment notice and defective works dispute in Jersey.
- Advising on limitation in respect of a complex claim by a Guernsey trustee against an English bank.
- Acting for the claimant employer in substantial proceedings against architects in the Royal Court of Guernsey.
- Advising on English law for the purposes of a construction dispute in Alderney.

Insights

Sport and anti-doping – the year in review 2018/19v

16 May 2019

Richard Liddell and William Harman of 4 New Square wrote an anti-doping update for Law In Sport on 16th May 2019. Its primary focus is UK anti-doping, decisions in the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) and developments relating to the major international anti-doping bodies.

GDPR and Sport: make sure that you're on the ball!

11 May 2018

Richard Liddell, Kendrah Potts and William Harman look at some of the principal enforcement risks facing sporting bodies under the new regime described by the ICO as a "game-changer" and consider how the GDPR might feed into existing facets of sports dispute resolution.

Englehart CTP (US) LLC v Lloyd's Syndicate 1221 and others [2018] EWHC 900 (Comm): all risks marine cargo insurance and fraud on the insured

27 April 2018

After being provided with fraudulent bills of lading for a shipment of non-existent copper ingots, Englehart's attempt to recover its losses under an all risks Marine Cargo and Storage policy was rejected by the Court on the basis that the alleged damage was economic loss to which an all risks cargo insurance policy did not respond. Sir Ross Cranston's decision is considered by Will Harman of 4 New Square.

Moonlighting: the latest word on vicarious liability

16 March 2018

The run of recent appellate decisions on vicarious liability continues in the case of Frederick and others v Positive Solutions (Financial Services) Limited [2018] EWCA Civ 431. On this occasion, the Court of Appeal has decided that a financial adviser was not vicariously liable for fraudulent "moonlighting" by one of its registered agents.
