

OUR PEOPLE

Anjali Narbheram

CALL 2024

✉ a.narbheram@4newsquare.com

☎ +44 (0)20 7822 2000

Anjali is a commercial junior with experience across commercial litigation and arbitration, construction, civil fraud, professional negligence and sanctions.

She has appeared as sole counsel in the County Court in applications and at trial, and in the High Court in insolvency and winding-up proceedings.

Anjali is a member of the Government Legal Department's Junior Junior Panel.

Before coming to the Bar, Anjali read Law at University College London, graduating with First Class Honours. She was awarded the Queen Mother Scholarship from Middle Temple to study for the Bar at the Inns of Court College of Advocacy.

She is a listed reporter and assistant editor of the European Human Rights Reports (Sweet & Maxwell). Outside work, she enjoys badminton, cricket and tennis.

Privacy Policy

Click here for a Privacy Policy for Anjali Narbheram.

Transparency Statement

Click here for a Transparency Statement for Anjali Narbheram.

Expertise

Commercial Disputes

Anjali accepts instructions across commercial litigation and arbitration.

Her experience before tenancy includes:

- Drafting a Request for Arbitration in relation to the termination of a commodities supply agreement.
- Advising on the construction of exclusion clauses under aviation agreements.
- Drafting pleadings in high-value debt claims, including disputes involving directors' loan accounts (DLAs).
- Assisting with a s.67 jurisdiction challenge to an arbitral award under a bilateral investment treaty.
- Assisting with preparation for a two-week LCIA arbitration involving a US medical supplier distribution dispute.
- Drafting a statement of claim for breach of contract and pursuant to connected guarantees as well as matters arising under s.72 of the Arbitration Act 1996.
- Assisting with an ICC emergency arbitration application concerning a gas sales agreement.
- Advising on the interpretation of aftermarket services agreements (aviation) and ISDA Master Agreements (equity swap transactions and tax charges/deductions).
- Drafting pleadings in disputes involving a loan agreement valued in excess of £18m and an alleged repudiatory breach arising out of the termination of a financial services agreement connected to a cryptocurrency start-up.
- Advising on assignment, guarantees, restoration of dissolved companies and sanctions issues.
- Advising on subscription agreements for the sale of shares, issues of company succession, breach of trust and the existence of a settlement agreement in the broader context of a breach of fiduciary duty/fraud claim.
- Assisting with disputes concerning unpaid barrister's fees under COMBAR terms.
- Assisting with/drafting skeleton arguments for security for costs applications.

Construction

Experience before tenancy includes:

- Drafting a defence concerning alleged defects and obligations under the NHBC rules.
- Advising on the quantification of damages in construction disputes.
- Advising on negligence claims arising in a construction context.

Civil Fraud

Anjali has experience in civil fraud matters, including applications for interim relief.

Her experience during pupillage includes:

- Claims involving unlawful means conspiracy and dishonest assistance.
- Drafting skeleton arguments addressing conflict of laws issues and the scope of the court's Chabra jurisdiction.
- Applications to vary freezing orders.
- Drafting skeleton arguments for strike out and summary judgment in claims involving breach of fiduciary duty and conspiracy.

Professional Negligence

Experience during pupillage includes:

- Advising on potential claims against solicitors arising out of applications for urgent interim relief, including freezing and proprietary injunctions.

Company & Insolvency

Anjali's experience includes:

- Appearing as sole counsel in the High Court in winding-up proceedings.